CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS. In the Senate, on the 26th, Mr. Plumb gave notice of an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriations bill, forbidding the purchase for National soldiers' homes of products of con-sist labor, in the shape of material or suppites. The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was passed. A message was from the President vetoing the bill granting a pension to the widow of John Turicy, who lost his life while endeavoring to quell an affray between two fellow-soldiers..... In the House, most of the day was spent in discussing the Land bill. An amendment was adopted allowing entrymen six months (instead of three) in which to erect

In the Senate, on the 27th, House bills were reported for a number of bridges, and House amendments to a large number of Senate bridge bills were concurred in. A conference was held on the bill releasing certain cultated men of the navy from the charge of desertion. The Public Land hill was passed, with the Hotman amendment, retaining title in the Govment to coal mines found on the public lands, but allowing entrymen to use such coal mines until further action by Congress In the House, a resolution was passed permitting employes of the Government who had been in the battle of Gottysburg to attend the anniversary of that battle. Mr. Mills coiled up the Tariff bill. Mr. Helley, of Pennsylvania, submitted a per-sonal proposition that the bill be laid over sub-November, which was not accepted by Mr. day was taken up in consideration of the River and Harbor Appropriation bill, but without final action. Further consideration of the Fisheries freaty was postponed until the 2d. Senator Allison made a statement of the status of the various appropriation hills. A joint resolution extending for thirty days the appropriations for the current fiscal year was pre-sented and referred. The Army Appropriation discussion of further amendments, the Senate consumed in political discussions and consideration of the Tariff bill. Various amendments were offered, and adopted or rejected on strict party lines-those offered by Republicans being voted down, and those of Democratic origin adopted, Mr. Parker, of Pennsylvania, had read a protest against the passage of the Mills bill, signed by over 800 manufacturers and business men of Philadelphia, employing 1:0,000 persons. The conference report on the Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation bill was agreed to, and the
